College takes proactive steps in materializing the imperatives of legal education, practice and profession. To the law student, they put them through practical, personal, interpersonal, and professional skills throughout their degree program. The approach is structured around Employability through Discipline, Knowledge, Skill, Endurance programed around three key themes;i. Maximising opportunities to develop 'transferable skills' i.e. problem solving skills and IT skills, ii. Demonstrating skills to obtain employment, i.e. from application form or CVto the face-to-face assessment at interview or assessment centre, iii. Applying skills in the workplace, i.e.legal research and advocacy skills for working at the Bar, Bench, Firm, Corporate or any other professional callings.

In service to nation, society and profession, we wish to recommend students of Lloyd for Internship opportunities of maximum duration in your esteemed organization.

Wish you all well and progress!
